

40 Reservists Of Coast Guard Here Friday

In cooperation with the U. S. Coast Guard reserve training program, the Joliet Arsenal will be host to 40 reservists, Friday.

Since the U. S. Coast Guard is responsible for the proper loading of ammunition aboard ships, the visit will include lectures in principles of ammunition handling, as well as a conducted tour of one of the Arsenal's operating segments.

Capt. Louis P. Clavenna, storage officer, will conduct the tour. The reserve unit will be under the command of Ensign John Duncanson, officer in charge of reserve training.
